Some Good Producers

Matrons at Sultandale, Anoka

A WORD AS TO THESE CATTLE

This offering is fully up to the standard of former Anoka sale offerings—a significant statement considering the ultra merit of this breeding nursery's former sale offerings. This is specially true of the females which are of superior excellence from first to last. Among the bulls are a number of rare worth, whose blood lines and attractive form commend them to those who want real herd headers. There are a few in the list of outstanding show form. Most of them are by the good sires, Lavender Sultan and Regal Stamp, bulls that stand, by virtue of their performance, among the greatest sires of the time. Other bulls of note are also represented, affording an exceptional range of selection. With one who is familiar with the unusual excellence of Anoka productions, covering a long period of years, who has noted the effect of the Sultan blood and it's remarkable prepotency and its results in this the 1921 offering, a study of these only tends to further emphasize the value of this blood and these attractive specimens in the further work of the breed's improvement. Mr. F. W. Harding is to be congratulated on the remarkable showing in quality production to be made by Anoka for 1921.

—Geo. E. Martin of the Breeder's Gazette.

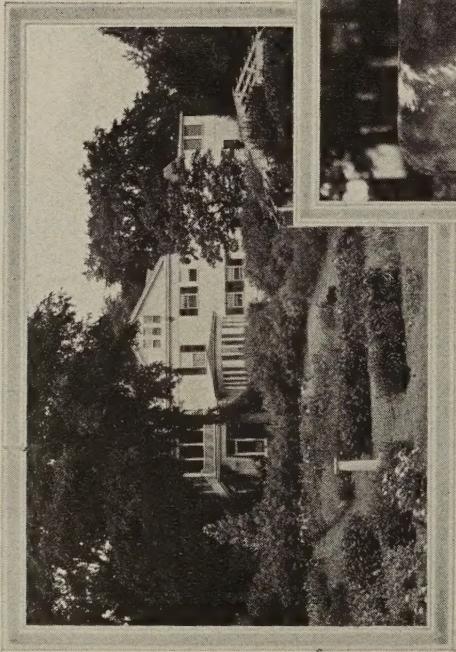

The evident preference of breeders of America for Anoka-bred cattle has been proven time and again at Anoka's annual auctions. Each year the most impressive sales event of the season is held at Anoka Farms. Each year bulls produced at Anoka exhibit their breed improving ability in other herds. Each year sales of other breeders are topped by cattle strong in the blood from Anoka's herd. Each year the principal shows have stronger and more attractive exhibits because of merit obtained through cattle bred at Anoka.

It was at Anoka that Whitehall Sultan spent his useful life. It was at Anoka that many of his greatest sons exerted their most potent influence. It is at Anoka that his renowned grandsons, Lavender Sultan and Regal Stamp, are siring calves that are meeting with the greatest public favor.

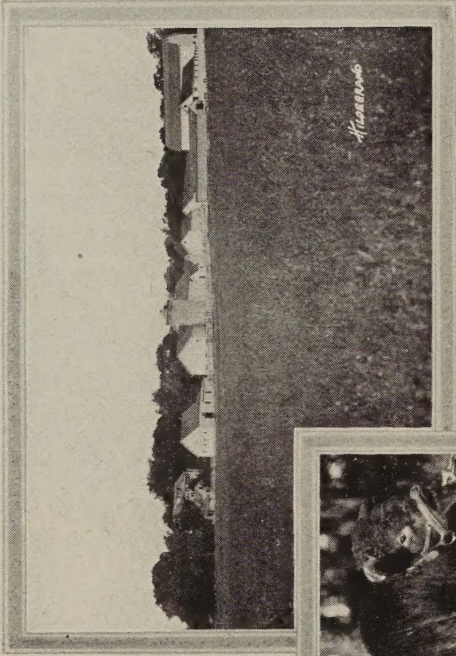

For this season's sale there has been selected what is probably the most evenly balanced lot of youngsters that have ever left this noted establishment. More than three-fourths of the entire offering were sired by Lavender Sultan or Regal Stamp. Thus is presented an opportunity greater than ever before to secure Anoka's premier production.

To the beginner who wishes to breed cattle that will always have ready sales at profitable prices, this sale presents wide opportunity to secure proper foundation material. To the established breeder, needing a young bull for mating with high class heifers, selection may be made from the 15 males that are listed with confidence that the cross will insure quality and character in the future crops of calves. For the men who own a good sire, the Anoka heifers will serve as a medium to assure that sire's future reputation as a stock getter. For material with which to strengthen a show herd, the showman need seek no further than the specimens offered at this year's sale.
